Foreword

“Parting is such sweet sorrow.” With this phrase prevailing in their minds, the staff of the 1963 Hamptonian has attempted, since early September, to compile a book that would serve to arouse, always, fond memories of the years of studying at H.I.

From our first day on the campus, stretching, seemingly everlasting, to our day of graduation, we have acquired a wealth of memories that shall ever remain . . . Cheering at the football and basketball games . . . The walks along the waterfront in the fall and in the spring . . . The Probation activities . . . The Musical Arts Society presentations . . . The nights in the grill with nothing to do? . . . and, as always, the midnight cramming sessions. All of these have made their contributions to making us, the students, more adaptable, indeed more flexible, as we prepare to step out into the world that exists beyond the gates of Hampton. With these few introductions and previews, we have gained an insight, through sheer suggestive hints; of what extends, what awaits us, beyond those gates.

And therefore, with a background of this we, the senior class, feeling adequately prepared to meet the challenge of a world in transformation, depart with affectionate memories, remembering never to forget the source of these memories: our home by the Sea, Hampton Institute.

Class of 1963 Dedicatee

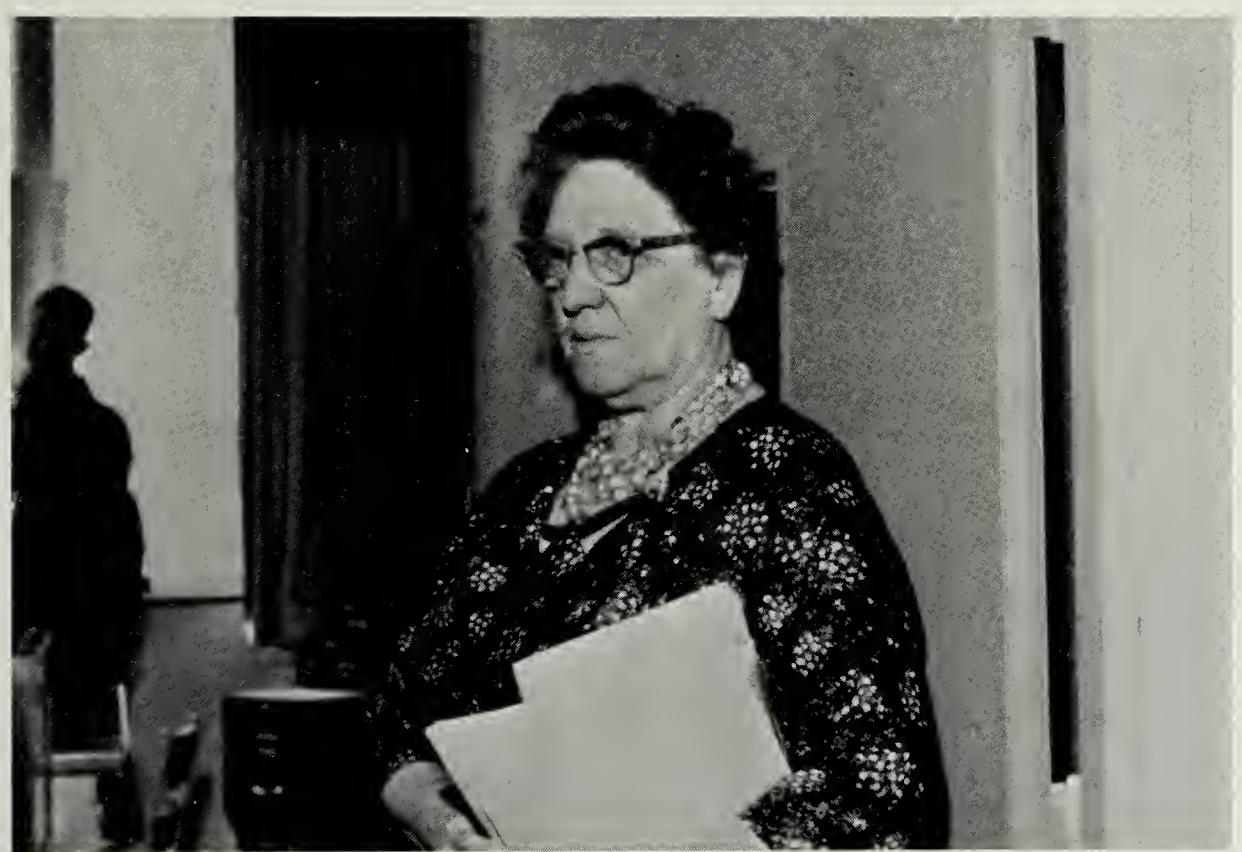

Miss Bernice A. O'Briant

The class of 1963 is cognizant of the difficulty involved in paying full tribute to so dedicated a person as Miss Bernice O'Briant. Having joined the Hampton Institute faculty in 1928, she has added balance and dignity to the profession of student development. For nearly three decades, as chairman of the department of secondary education, her primary aim has been devoted to stimulating and guiding the intellectual development of future teachers in the secondary schools. She has worked toward this aim with sincere loyalty, conscientiousness, and high standards.

For students who have graduated from Hampton and have gone out into the teaching profession, her name will forever be a legendary symbol of greatness and high devotion in the field of education.

The entire Hampton family joins the class of 1963 in honoring Miss O'Briant for her renowned history of proud, faithful, and untiring service in the elevation of educational standards at Hampton Institute.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE
HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

October 23, 1962

Dear Seniors:

I am very happy to have this opportunity to extend congratulations to the members of the Class of 1962 on behalf of the members of the Hampton family. You have succeeded in passing the academic requirements of Hampton Institute leading to the Baccalaureate Degree. With this degree, you not only join the ranks of many outstanding graduates of Hampton Institute, but you become a part of a large body of people whose citizenship responsibility will determine the destiny of this nation.

I am confident of your ability to accept such responsibility. Your experiences at Hampton Institute certainly qualify you for this task. The record which you make as a citizen will reflect credit to you as an individual and to your alma mater. This is a test of the effectiveness of the Hampton program.

You have the best wishes of all members of the Hampton family as you prepare to leave your "Home by the sea."

Very truly yours,
Jerome A. Holland
President

(Excerpt) from Founders Day speech

False illusions lead or motivate men "THE HIGH PRIEST" of the founders philosophy: into dead ends, into actions and decisions which can destroy or render obsolete the very institution they seek to preserve.

Chapter History

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, paved the way for Negro fraternities. The first of its nature, the fraternity was founded on December 4, 1906, at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

Throughout its history Alpha Phi Alpha has maintained its high ideals and altruistic aims, through collective and individual efforts.

Gamma Iota Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha was founded on February 9, 1947, at Hampton Institute. This chapter has initiated many cultural, social and scholastic activities here at Hampton. It has also maintained a high level of achievement for its members in all phases of college and national activities.

This chapter is proud of its heritage and shall continue to function in the best interest of Hampton Institute.
